

Pope Francis tells us: “Paradise is the embrace of God, infinite Love, and we enter thanks to Jesus, who died on the cross for us. Where there is Jesus, there is mercy and happiness.” I think this is a very good way of thinking about it. We believe that those who have gone before us to God remain with us in spirit. They are absent but not gone. I think they are especially present with us at mass and that’s why it is so important to remember our relatives and friends at anniversary masses which is a wonderful tradition in this parish.

Let us pray that we will experience the consolation of God’s presence as we reflect on those people who have inspired, encouraged and helped us in life. Sometimes our achievements are based on theirs. May they now enjoy the rewards of their goodness and kindness with the Risen Lord in heaven.

As we reflect this weekend on St Luke’s “Sermon on the Plain”, let us thank God for the gifts and blessings of our lives and to pray that we will always be aware of those who are less well off whether materially or spiritually.

Last Friday, February 11th, we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of the Sick. Pope Francis reminds us:

“Like Saint Bernadette, we stand beneath the watchful gaze of Mary. Let us ask Mary Immaculate for the grace always to relate to the sick as persons who certainly need assistance, at times even for the simplest of things, but who have a gift of their own to share with others.”

Pope Benedict once said that the thin veil that separates heaven and earth is a little more transparent in Lourdes. Let us pray that we may remember that our lives are not just about us. They are part of God’s providential plan, part of a story that stretches infinitely beyond what we can immediately grasp...for people of faith, there are no coincidences, only aspects of God’s providence that we have not yet fully understood.

We are all familiar with the story of Saint Bernadette in Lourdes but perhaps a little less so with the dozen or so years she later spent in Nevers where she worked in the infirmary as a member of the Daughters of Charity of Nevers. In the convent garden in Nevers, there is a statue of Our Lady of the Waters where St. Bernadette would often go to pray. She said: “It is she who reminds me most of the lady I saw.”

Let us pray to Our Lady of Lourdes and to Saint Bernadette this weekend for all who are sick both in mind and in body that they may experience the healing grace of God’s love.

*“How happy are you who are poor:
yours is the kingdom of God”*

13th February 2022

Our Gospel today, the Sermon on the Plain in Luke corresponds to the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew. Jesus presents us with a vision of society that is almost the exact opposite of what we would expect. He tells us:

“How happy are you who are poor: yours is the kingdom of God. Happy you who are hungry now: you shall be satisfied. Happy are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy, for then your reward will be great in heaven.”

The message here is that God’s ways are not our ways and that he looks at things differently to the way we do. I am reminded of the tremendous emphasis that Pope Francis puts on the poor. He frequently visits and meets with those who are not well off and has recently provided facilities for the homeless near St Peter’s Square.

One way that we can assist the poor is to contribute to the Society of St Vincent de Paul or another charity that helps the homeless.

In our second reading, St Paul makes a dramatic statement. He tells us that:

“If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people.”

But he goes on to assure us that: “Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.”

When speaking about the next life in 2012, Pope Benedict XVI said: “Death opens to life, to eternal life, which is not an infinite duplicate of the present time, but something completely new.”
