Nan, a grandmother in her seventies is becoming increasingly forgetful. She's also been left with the added challenge of rearing Thomas, her wayward grandson, on her own. The story takes place in a sweep of locations from Nan's flat near the 5 Lamps, to a film set in Wicklow, from the old Log Cabin in Fairview to Dunnes Stores in Henry Street, from The Mater Hospital to the Garda station in Store Street. With brushes with the Guards, dramatic shoplifting episodes, break-ins, court appearances, and a constant battle with school attendance and probation officers, THE CLOUDSPOTTER explores the rawness of life. But deep at its core is the deeply felt love between a grandmother and her grandson.

Whitehall Parish Centre on Wednesday 22nd November at 2.30pm. Entrance is free of charge and the coffee shop will be open for a short time after the performance.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The line between good and evil runs not through states, nor between classes, nor between political parties -- but right through every human heart

(Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn)
