“Learn how to place the tenderness that is in your hearts at the service of the sick.”

9th February 2020

We are all familiar with the story of St. Bernadette in Lourdes but perhaps a little less so with dozen or so years she later spent in Nevers where she worked in the infirmary as a member of the Daughters of Charity of Nevers. In the convent garden in Nevers, there is a statue of Our Lady of the Waters where St. Bernadette would often go to pray. She said: “It is she who reminds me most of the lady I saw.”

Let us pray to Our Lady of Lourdes and to Saint Bernadette this weekend for all who are sick both in mind and in body that they may experience the healing grace of God’s love.

Our parish pilgrimage to Lourdes takes place from September 9th-14th this year and is advertised elsewhere in this newsletter. You might consider going especially if you have not done so in recent years and would like to return.

I was fortunate to join the Whitehall pilgrimage last year and

Last week, we began the Novena to Our Lady of Lourdes in preparation for the Feast day which is also World Day of the Sick next Tuesday February 11th.

Pope Francis reminds us: “Like Saint Bernadette, we stand beneath the watchful gaze of Mary. Let us ask Mary Immaculate for the grace always to relate to the sick as persons who certainly need assistance, at times even for the simplest of things, but who have a gift of their own to share with others.”

Pope Benedict once said that the thin veil that separates heaven and earth is a little more transparent in Lourdes. Let us pray that we may remember that our lives are not just about us. They are part of God’s providential plan, part of a story that stretches infinitely beyond what we can immediately grasp...for people of faith, there are no coincidences, only aspects of God’s providence that we have not yet fully understood.

I must say that it was a very inspiring and enjoyable experience. One of the things that makes Lourdes truly special is the extraordinary care that is taken of the sick pilgrims who travel there. They are greeted with tremendous warmth, dignity and respect. When speaking to some of the helpers, I was amazed that how many of them return to Lourdes year after year and it’s lovely to see the great friendships that develop between them.

Speaking in Lourdes last year, Archbishop Diarmuid Martin said the following: “Bernadette was humble and uneducated, yet she understood the call of Mary even if she did not understand some of the words that Mary used. It was the rich and the powerful who placed obstacles in the path of Bernadette. There is a sense in which the affluence and commercialism that surround Lourdes weakens the authenticity of its message. It is here in the quiet and prayerfulness of the Sanctuary and especially of this Grotto that we come in touch with the true message of Lourdes and that message touches and changes our hearts.”

Then the Archbishop added an important point. When addressing the young people present he said: “Learn how to place the tenderness that is in your hearts at the service of the sick and bring that experience with you as you prepare for your life and work.”

The writer Thomas Merton said: “Not all are called to be hermits but all need enough silence and solitude in their lives to enable the deep inner voice of our true self to be heard at least occasionally.” I think that being part of a pilgrimage to Lourdes can provide us with such an opportunity. One of the good things about a pilgrimage is that it gives us some time out to step out of our daily lives and try to gain some fresh perspectives on the challenges that we face and try to learn a bit more about ourselves. Archbishop Martin spoke about the “quiet prayerfulness” of the Sanctuary at Lourdes where there is an opportunity for us to be that little bit more open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit when visiting there.

When we return from a pilgrimage, we hope that we will be in some way better people with fresh insights into how God is present in our lives and what he is calling us to do.

I would encourage you to consider visiting Lourdes this year and you may know of sick or elderly family, friends or neighbours who might benefit from going on the pilgrimage. You can contact the Lourdes office at 01-837 6820 or email info@lourdes.dublindiocese.ie for enquiries about sick pilgrims travelling or contact the Parish Office here in the Church of the Holy Child.
