

Simon of Cyrene

“As they were leading him away they seized on a man, Simon from Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and made him shoulder the cross and carry it behind Jesus.”

We often help other people to carry the burdens of life even when we don't fully realise what we are doing. It can be a kind word of support or a practical gesture that can make a real difference in the lives of others. We can never fully know the burdens that other people are carrying and sometimes its enough just to be there to listen and to support them.

The Women

“The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid. Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments.”

The women in the gospel play an important part in Holy Week and stayed around when all the other disciples fled in fear apart from St. John. In 2016, Pope Francis elevated the celebration of Saint Mary Magdalene (presumed from other gospel accounts to be one of the women) to a full feast day similar to that of the twelve apostles. The Vatican said at the time:

“Saint John Paul II paid great attention to the particular role of Saint Mary Magdalene as the first witness who saw the risen Christ, and as the first messenger who announced the Lord's resurrection to the Apostles.”

The women observed carefully what was happening and prepared for the next part of the burial Jewish burial customs. Mary Magdalene, in particular, could not have known at this point that her actions would lead her to being the first witness of the resurrection in the following days. As we reflect on St Luke's Gospel during Holy Week let us remember the important role played by the people I have mentioned. And to recall that its not always the most important or high ranking amongst us who have significant roles to play but often its the more quiet, reflective people who can act decisively and get things done effectively in difficult times.

Palm Sunday

10th April 2022

Today is Palm Sunday which marks the beginning of Holy Week and the day when we read the Gospel story of the passion of Jesus Christ, Our Saviour.

This year, it is the turn of St. Luke's Gospel and I would in particular like to focus on three people who are mentioned in the gospel today. In each case, they are not perhaps the most obvious people or the ones who were especially prominent but they showed great insightfulness and consideration in a very difficult and challenging situation.

Joseph of Arimathea

“Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph, who, though a member of the council, had not agreed to their plan and action.”

The figure of Joseph of Arimathea is mentioned in all four gospels. He was an important member of the Jewish community and Mark tells us that he was a member of the Council. It could be said that he was important enough for Pilate to take him seriously. John 19:38 confirms this by telling us that:

“Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission, so he came and removed his body.”

We can conclude that Joseph was able to use his position and influence to ensure that Jesus had a proper burial. St John explains the rest of the story:

“Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They [Joseph and Nicodemus] took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews. Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid.”

Advocate Collection April 9th/10th 2022- The Sunshine Fund of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is holding its annual collection in this Church and all Dublin Churches this weekend. This year they have decided to do an envelope collection rather than a bucket collection. Like all charities they have been unable to fundraise or operate properly over the last two years and so many children have missed out on a holiday. The envelopes are available in the Church and can be placed in the Church safes or posted back to the Sunshine Office. Please be as generous as you can.
